The Importance of Being Versatile

is fully realized by these gay little suits for small boys—for they trim a blouse of wash fabric with navy serge, and add trousers of serge to match the trimmings.

And then, that the youngsters may wear them twice as long, trousers of wash fabric to match are included.

Models are middie and one-piece effects. Sizes 3 to 9 years.

The Way of a Coat With a Woman

depends on the way she wants to wear it. Straight of line, wrapped or draped—many are the lines one can achieve with a simple model. Regular and extra sizes.

At 68.00—Coats of fashiona, panvelaine, and Minerva, in bloused back, straight-line, paneled or wrap effects. Furs are black caracul, wolf, Viatka or gray squirrel and beaver.

At 98.50—Not only collars and cuffs, but in many instances, more elaborate combinations of fur and fabric assist in making these coats the richly distinctive affairs they should be. Of fashiona, gerona, panvelaine and other velvety fabrics, adorned with black caracul, kit fox, squirrel, beaver and taupe wolf.

Furs—The Gift Supreme

The lady at the left sails serenely on through restaurant or theatre, luxuriating in the richness of a coat of Persian lamb, further enriched by a full collar and wide cuff bands of mink. And the lining, too, can face the world with assurance, since it is of handsome brocaded silk in the wearer's favorite color. Fancy girdle included.

The woman who likes simplicity of line and fur, and complete absence of trimming is certain to find this model of Hudson seal (dyed muskrat) entirely to her taste. From collar to hem, it is entirely of the seal, and while it adds a girdle, this may be worn or not, as preferred. In 45 to 48 inch lengths, beautifully lined in colorful silks.

Silky Skunk or beaver find their way to this Hudson seal (dyed muskrat) coat, to form the full collar and generous cuffs. They accentuate the lustrous black of the seal, and frame the face in becoming fashion. A girdle, too, plays its part by restraining its fullness, but not its smartness. Linings are brocaded silks in bright or subdued colors.

Sale of 500 Colortone Pyralin Boudoir Sets in the DuBarry Pattern

Regularly 60.00—29.95

These exquisite toilet sets were made by the best known manufacturer of toilet sets in America, and are so beautiful that one must see them to fully realize their perfect workmanship and rare beauty. We were only able to secure 500 sets—a small quantity for us at this time of the year—which prompts us to advise immediate selection. The famous DuBarry design which they have chosen is very well liked for its simplicity, good taste and harmony of line.

To Color One's Leisure Moments Pleasantly—Boudoir Coats of Changeable Silk

—as changeable as a woman's whim, we were about to say, but after all, these have some limitations as to the number of colors they can display.

At 10.75—At the left is one of changeable satin that relies upon its material for trimming. In this case, it takes the form of ruching.

At 19.75—The other comes in changeable taffeta with frills of lace, and may be had in Copenhagen, pink, orchid and coral.

And for women who want a breakfast coat that displays but one color, another delightful model is offered—of satin, with spaced lace ruffings. In rose, orchid, Copenhagen and coral. 14.75
